CONTEST GROWS WARM.

Myrtle Creekmore Leads in the City and Eunice Peavy in County-Only Ten Days More.

The Merchants-Democrat Piano Contest is proving quite lively and interesting. Miss Myrtle Creekmore is leading in the city by a close vote, while Miss Eunice Peavy is leading the out of city vote by a small margin.

Two High Grade Pianos are to be given away-one to the most popular young lady in Live Oak, and the other to the most popular young lady in Suwannee county residing outside the city of Live Oak.

The pianos are now on exhibition in this city, and they are beauties. One s at the Hair Hardware Store and the other at Mrs. Bache's Millinery Store. Call and see them.

Under the rules of this contest the undersigned merchants will give 100 votes for every dollar's worth of mer-· chandise sold for cash.

The contest opened Monday, Sept. 20th, and will close December 20, 1909. On every cash purchase at the following houses votes will be issued:

S. J. Wh te, Shoes and Gents' Furnishings.

W. Byrd, Fresh Meats. Hair Hardware Co., Hardware. Suwannee Democrat, Subscriptions only.

Mrs. C. W. Bache, Millinery and Dry Goods.

R. L. White, Groceries. Brown-Thomason Drug Co., Drugs. Notice.

The merchants interested in this con- Bulea Robinson test have, for good and sufficient rea- Lula McLain sons, decided to extend the time for Jewell Hodge closing the contest to December 20th, Offic Carmicheal and all parties interested will please take notice.

The contest will close December 20th instead of December 1st as published heretofore.

Boxes for depositing votes will be Florence Rass found at each of the above named Miss Stella Clark stores, where votes may be deposited. Rubie Mobley Relatives of any of the above firms are prohibited from entering the contest. All societies, clubs, etc., are also prohibited from entering.

Votes will be counted Tuesday of each week by the Hair Hardware Co., Mamie Goodbroad and the vote of the various candidates announced in the Democrat.

Get busy if you want to win a High Grade piano.

Rules of the Contest.

Any young lady or girl in Suwannee county is elligible to entry, except that Myrtle Creekman the firms above mentioned have the Mary Blame right to eliminate anyone who, in their Emma Parables opinion, may be undersirable as a con- Ethel Wood testant.

No attache of any business house Bessie Fleet represented may be a candidate, nor any immediate relatives.

Any differences arising during the contest are to be referred to the above firms for adjustment, who alone are to render decisions.

Should any candidate desire to withdraw from the contest the votes cast for such candidate will be thrown out and not counted for any other candi-

All nominations made by mail should be made to any of the above firms.

The Democrat will give on yearly subscriptions-$1.00:

One subscription 500 votes. Five subscriptions...... 5,000 votes. Ten subscriptions...... 10,000 votes.

The above proposition applies to old subscribers renewing as well as on new subscriptions.
